BIOGRAPHY

Davide Romeo, born in Ticino, moves fluidly between two worlds: the stage and the camera. A graduate of the Dimitri Theater Academy and winner of the "Migros Talent" award, he's built a career that blends physical performance with visual storytelling. He has performed as an actor, clown, acrobat, and dancer across Switzerland and Europe — from Luzerner Theater productions to the flying rig of Peter Pan, and multiple seasons with Circus Monti. In 2025, he returns to the Origen Festival with a Commedia dell'Arte show, and appears in the comedy feature The Frontaliers Disasters II.

Behind the camera, Davide has always documented, shaped, and reimagined reality. In 2020, he founded Quarantine Production and began writing, directing, acting in and editing original works — including the thriller series Swiss Secrets, the arthouse film Spectacular Life, and the upcoming comedy film Super Like. In 2024, he was nominated in seven categories at LA WEBFEST in Los Angeles — including Best Director, Actor, and Cinematographer — and won Best Production Design and Best Series across all genres.
